

A “hook” is the first one or two sentences of your writing. It serves as the introduction and works to grab your reader’s attention – it hooks your reader and reels them in!

Dialogue

“Where’s Papa going with that axe?’ said Fern to her mother as they were setting the table for breakfast.”

~Charlotte’s Web

Sound Effects

Also called an onomatopoeia

“Chug, chug, chug. Puff, puff, puff. Ding-dong, ding-dong”

~The Little Engine That Could

Ask a Question

Have you ever had to make a decision that you knew would change everything?

Start with a vivid description

“Early one morning the wind blew across the field. A thin, silky thread trailed from her body. The spider landed on a fence post near a farm yard ...”

~The Very Busy Spider

One Power Word

Bravery. That’s what it takes to make a difference.

Interesting Fact

Strawberries have more Vitamin C than oranges but for some reason oranges get all the glory.
